

Travel & Car Parking

The Institute of Transplantation and the Newcastle Surgical Training Centre are located within the Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals Foundation Trust and are easily accessible by air, rail and Road

High speed rail links

Access to all our hospital is easy with high speed rail links directly to Newcastle's Central Station from many destinations in England and Scotland. We are less than an hour and a half away from both Leeds and Edinburgh, and you can get here directly from London Kings Cross, Peterborough, Birmingham, Sheffield, Manchester and Glasgow in just 3 hours or less. Newcastle Central Station is a 15mins taxi journey to the Freeman Hospital.

Driving to Newcastle

Newcastle is easily accessible if you are driving or prefer to travel by coach with major road routes straight to the hospital from both the north (A1) and south (A1M) and from the west (A69).

Flying to Newcastle

Fly direct to Newcastle International Airport Newcastle's International Airport is just 20 minutes away from the Freeman Hospital which is easily accessible by the local Metro system, car or taxi.

Car parking charges

With regard to parking, there is a pay and display car park situated at the front of the hospital, which is available. All delegates are requested to park in this area. Please do not use the Multi-Storey Car Park at the rear of the Freeman. You will find travel directions on

Duration	Cost
0 - 5 hours	£1.10 per hour (or part-hour)
6 - 24 hours	£7.70 per period

our website www.nstcsurg.org